The EAA supports Emory’s tradition of intellectual curiosity and commitment to lifelong learning through varied and timely educational programming throughout the year. Educational programming highlights the accomplishments of Emory’s stellar faculty and distinguished alumni. Submit a proposal for your chapter to be included in the upcoming year’s slate of lifelong learning opportunities. Remember to look beyond just faculty and to also consider distinguished alumni in your own community!