Dear Volunteers and Leaders,

Thank you for giving of your time and talents to help further the Emory Alumni Association’s (EAA) mission to connect alumni to the university and each other, to build traditions, and to foster student and alumni leadership in communities around the world. Because our chapters are volunteer led and volunteer driven, your contributions are invaluable to our success — we’re here because of you!

The following resources were created with you, our chapter leaders and volunteers, in mind. These resources and guidelines provide a solid foundation to lead and engage your alumni communities and to take advantage of all of the tools that the EAA has to offer. Additionally, they help ensure that you are aware of the EAA’s core messages and core programs, staying on track throughout the year with the association’s master calendar.

The entire alumni association staff is always available to help and guide you. The Global Alumni Relations (GAR) team has primary responsibility for supporting alumni chapters, and each chapter has an Emory Alumni Board regional representative assigned to work directly with our volunteer leaders.

We know that your time is valuable, and we appreciate your commitment to serving as an ambassador for Emory. We look forward to supporting you as you connect fellow alumni in your community with each other and with Emory!

Thank you,

The EAA staff
